

Clovis Botanical Garden
Presents
SCARECROW GARDEN

The Clovis Botanical Garden is planning our 3RD ANNUAL “SCARECROW GARDEN” event, and we would like to invite you to join in the fun!

Participants (businesses, organizations, scout troops, classrooms and families) are invited to create a free-standing scarecrow on your own that will be displayed throughout the garden from October 9th to November 13th for a donation of $20. Provide a sign to accompany your scarecrow to advertise or showcase your affiliation. Bring your entries to the garden October 1ST- 8th (except Mon. & Tues. when the garden is closed).

This is a great way for you to:

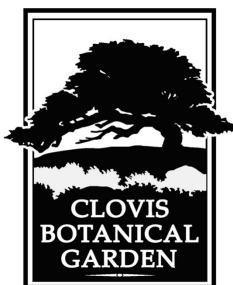

- Advertise your services and/or products
- Engage your employees or group in a team-building activity
- Celebrate your family, students, scouts, employees
- Educate valley residents and increase public awareness
- Support the Clovis Botanical Garden and local groups
- Have fun in the Fall!

This event will also coincide with our annual Fall Plant Sale on October 16th & 17th. So, HUNDREDS of visitors will have the opportunity to enjoy your creation and vote for “The People’s Choice Awards!” (Approximately 2,000 people visited the garden last year during this period.)

The entry form and event details are on the back. We hope you participate to support the Clovis Botanical Garden, advertise within our community, and have some fun too!
