

Clovis Botanical Garden
Presents
SCARECROW GARDEN

2021

The Clovis Botanical Garden is planning our 4th ANNUAL “SCARECROW GARDEN” event, and we would like to invite you to join in the fun!

Participants are invited to create a free-standing scarecrow on your own that will be displayed throughout the garden from October 6th to November 14th for a donation of $20. Provide a sign to accompany your scarecrow to advertise or highlight your affiliation. Bring your entries to the garden October 1ST- 8th (except Mon. & Tues. when the garden is closed).

This is an exciting way for you to:

- Advertise your services and/or products
- Engage your employees or group in a team-building activity
- Celebrate your family, students, scouts, employees
- Educate valley residents and increase public awareness
- Support the Clovis Botanical Garden and local groups
- Have fun in the Fall! Plan to visit so you can enjoy the Scarecrow Garden too! Admission to the Garden is always free.

This event will also coincide with our annual Fall Plant Sale on October 15th & 16th. So, HUNDREDS of visitors will have the opportunity to enjoy your creation and vote for “The People’s Choice Awards!”

The entry form and event details are on the back. We hope you participate to support the Clovis Botanical Garden, advertise within our community, visit the Scarecrow Garden, and have fun too!

Pay entry fee on-line at: <https://clovisbotanicalgarden.org/scarecrow-online-entry-2021/>

ALL proceeds will go toward garden maintenance and improvement projects.
